Cruise Highlights

Card Player Cruises invites you to visit these exotic ports with us!

Falmouth, Jamaica:

Step off the ship and step back in time. Falmouth was an economic powerhouse and center for dramatic social change during the English Colonial Period. Visitors will enjoy 19th-century Georgian architecture, river bamboo raft rides, arts and crafts shopping, flavorful local fare and horse-and-buggy rides through town. East of Falmouth is Ocho Rios, best known for its spectacular Dunn's River Falls. Travel west to Montego Bay and the beautiful beaches of Negril. Thanks to its location, Falmouth gives visitors the best tour experiences of the north coast of Jamaica.

George Town, Grand Cayman:

Grand Cayman is one of a group of three magnificent tropical islands Christopher Columbus called "Las Tortugas" (the turtles) for the sea creatures he found in the ocean water. Visitors to the island will enjoy learning about the turtles, visiting the town of Hell, exploring Seven-Mile Beach and enjoying the undersea world.

Cozumel, Mexico:

The Conquistadors first saw Mexico from the shores of Cozumel while searching for gold. Today, visitors to the island continue to seek out gold and silver jewelry in the shops of San Miguel while having a great time in its many local bars and restaurants. Plus, the waters around Cozumel's coral reefs make this one of the best snorkeling areas in the world.

Things You Don't Want to Miss:

Falmouth, Jamaica was founded in 1769 and became the shipment hub for sugar plantations covering the hills of Jamaica's North Coast. Take in this history with a stroll through Falmouth's Historic District where visitors can explore an impressive collection of 19th-century Georgian architecture. Many of the buildings are still intact and renowned for their unique gingerbread woodwork. From small wooden houses to brick Georgian mansions to plantation complexes, visitors will find themselves on a delightful excursion into the 18th and 19th centuries.

At George Town, Grand Cayman, you can experience a once-in-a-lifetime adventure: snorkeling with stingrays at Stingray City Sandbar. These relatively tame creatures will swim right into your arms as they glide around you. They have velvety soft skin and love to have their bellies rubbed. Despite their frightening name, they are very gentle and won't hurt you as long as you stay away from their tails.

While in Cozumel, Mexico, don't miss the opportunity to explore the ruins of the ancient Mayan city of Tulum, majestically perched above the turquoise Caribbean. The site was occupied as far back as 600 A.D. You will be struck by the pyramid-shaped El Castillo, which dominates the city from atop a forty-foot cliff. The nearby Temple of the Descending God provides equally excellent insight into the architecture of the Mayan people, who gained considerable achievements in the arts and sciences, only to decline and vanish for no apparent reason.

Voyager of the Seas

Ship Highlights

This ship is a revolutionary marvel of naval engineering. Enjoy one-of-a-kind features like an ice-skating rink, the Royal Promenade and a rock-climbing wall, just for starters.

The 138,000-ton, 3,114-guest Voyager of the Seas became the world's largest cruise ship when it entered service in November 1999. Innovations add up to more space for every guest, and include enhanced staterooms, expanded dining options and exceptional recreational facilities.

The Voyager of the Seas is commonly referred to as a 'Floating hotel' due to the vast range of facilities that it offers, along with some world firsts for cruise ships when the ship was launched. Voyager features the world's first rock climbing wall (mounted on the funnel) and ice-skating rink at sea. Another innovative feature of Voyager of the Seas and another world first is the Royal Promenade which is a marble floored street stretching just over 3/4 the length of the ship and features shops and light dining venues. This area is the heart of the ship for evening activity , along with the three story high 'La Scala' theatre in which some of the latest production technology is used to produce Broadway standard production shows at night.

Poker Room

Card Player Cruises proudly features a professional, fully staffed, non-smoking poker room. The poker room is usually open for play immediately after the first-seating dinner on your departure day. The poker room remains open throughout most of the cruise except when the ship is in port.

Free beginner lessons for novices are offered, followed by a low limit hold'em game for beginners only.

The Card Player Cruises staff will be happy to spread any game and limit that enough players want to play.

A general guideline regarding the games and limits on most cruises is as follows:

Texas hold'em: $2-$4, $4-$8, $10-$20, $20-$40

Omaha/8: $4-$8, $10-$20, occasionally higher

Mixed games: $20-$40, occasionally higher

No-limit hold'em at blinds of $1-$3 and $2-$5 with capped buy-ins

All poker games are open to anyone 18 years and older.

Great poker action - Exciting ports
